ORDER

The Hon'ble Supreme Court has issued following direction vide order dated 18.03.2026 in the matter of Suo Motu Writ Petition (Civil) No. 8 of 2025, titled "2 Million Lives at Risk: Contamination in Jojari River, Rajasthan :

"RSPCB shall ensure that no fresh Consent to Establish or Consent to Operate is granted for the establishment or operation of any hazardous or obnoxious industry along the riverbanks. RSPCB shall further ensure strict adherence to the prescribed norms relating to minimum distance from the high flood line and the mandatory buffer zones of the river, as stipulated under the applicable rules and guidelines. Any deviation from such norms shall be viewed seriously and shall invite appropriate regulatory action in accordance with law."

Earlier, the Regional Officers of Pali, Balotra and Jodhpur have been directed vide letter no. F.05 (Gen-67)RPCB/Textile/488 dated 22.05.2026 for ensuring compliance of the above directions.

In order to strictly enforcing the Hon'ble Apex Court's directions, State Board has decided that in district Pali, Balotra and Jodhpur, no fresh Consent to Establish or Consent to Operate is granted for the establishment or operation of any hazardous or obnoxious industry along the riverbanks without seeking minimum distance from the high flood line and the mandatory buffer zones of the river, as stipulated under the applicable rules and guidelines. The minimum distance from high flood line and the mandatory buffer zones of the river shall be duly certified by district level officer of the Water Resources Department in format- A. Concerned Regional Officers are directed to ensure the compliance of this order.
