MINIMUM WAGES

3. Manner of calculating the minimum rate of wages.—

- 1) For the purposes of sub-section (5) of section 6 of the Code, the minimum rate of wages shall be fixed on the day basis keeping in view the following criteria, namely:-
 - a) the standard working class family which includes a spouse and two children apart from the earning worker; an equivalent of three adult consumption units;
 - b) A net intake of two thousand seven hundred calories per day per consumption unit;
 - c) 66 meters cloth per year per standard working class family;
 - d) Housing rent expenditure to constitute ten per cent of food and clothing expenditure;
 - e) Fuel, electricity and other miscellaneous items of expenditure to constitute twenty per- cent of minimum wage; and
 - f) Expenditure for children education, medical requirement, recreation and expenditure on contingencies to constitute twenty five percent of minimum wage;
- 2) When the rate of wages for a day is fixed, then, such an amount shall be divided by eight or the number of hour consisting a normal working day, as the case may be, for fixing the rate of wages for an hour and multiplied by twenty six for fixing the rate of wages for a month and in such division and multiplication the factors of one-half and more than one-half shall be rounded as next figure and the factors less than one-half shall be ignored.

4. Norms for fixation of minimum rate of wages.—

- 1) While fixing the minimum rate of wages under section 6 of the Code, the State Government shall constitute a State Level Committee for the purpose of advising the State Government in respect of skill categorization, which shall consist of the following members, namely:-
 - a) Secretary, Labour, Employment, Skill Development & Entrepreneurship

Department – Chairperson.

- b) Director, Labour, Employment, Skill Development & Entrepreneurship Department – Member Secretary;
 - c) A representative from the department of Labour, Employment, Skill Development & Entrepreneurship Department dealing with Labour Matters & Skill Development - Member;
 - d) A representative from Finance Department – Member;
 - e) A representative from Economics & Statistics Department – Member;
 - f) 4 members representing Employers – Member;
 - g) 4 members representing Workers/Employees – Member.
- 2) The State Government shall, on the advice of the State Level Committee referred to in sub-rule (1), categorize the occupations of the employees into four categories that is to say unskilled, semi- skilled, skilled and highly skilled by modifying, deleting or adding any entry in the categorization of such occupations specified in Schedule A.
- 3) The State Level committee referred to in sub-rule (1) shall, while advising the State Government under sub-rule (2) take into account, to the possible extent, the national classification of occupation or national skills qualification frame work or other similar frame work for the time being formulated to identify occupations.
- 5. Time Interval for revision of dearness allowance.- Endeavour shall be made so that the cost of living allowance and the cash value of the concession in respect of essential commodities at concession rate shall be computed once before first April and then before 1st October in every year to revise the dearness allowance payable to the employees on the minimum wages.
- 6. Number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day.–
- 1) The normal working day under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall be comprised of
 - (a) eight hours for establishments having a six day work week; or
 - (b) nine hours for establishments having a five day work week; or
 - (c) ten hours for establishments having a four day work week as the case may be and one or more intervals of rest which in total shall not exceed one hour:Provided that the total number of working hours in a week shall not exceed forty-eight hours.
 - 2) The working day of an employee shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals of rest, if any, it shall not spread over more than twelve hours on any day.
 - 3) The provisions of sub-rule (1) and (2) shall, in the case of an employee employed in agricultural employment, be subject to such modifications as may, from time to time, be determined by the State Government.

- 4) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948).

7. Weekly day of rest.-

- 1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee shall be allowed a day of rest every week (hereinafter referred to as “the rest day”) which shall ordinarily be Sunday, but the employer may fix any other day of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees:

Provided that an employee shall be entitled for the rest day under this sub-rule if he has worked under the same employer for a continuous period of not less than six days:

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the day fixed as the rest day and of any subsequent change in the rest day before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect in the place of employment at the place specified by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator in this behalf.

Explanation- For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days specified in the first proviso to this sub-rule, any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work, a day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), and any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days immediately preceding the rest day, shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked.

- 2) Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the five days immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made which will result in the employee working for more than ten days consecutively without a rest day for a whole day.

- 3) Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this rule, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the five days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.

- 4) An employee shall be granted-

- a) for rest day wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day; and
- b) where he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then,

he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that where -

- i) the minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty- six; or
- ii) the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty-six and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and
- iii) the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate;

and, if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out in accordance with the provisions of this proviso, the Labour Commissioner or the Deputy Labour Commissioner having territorial jurisdiction may, on application made to him in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations:

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, the wages for the rest day, or the substituted rest day, as the case may be, shall be such as the Central Government may, from time to time determine having regard to the minimum rate of wages fixed under the Code, in respect of the employment.

Explanation.- In this sub-rule ‘next preceding day’ means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

- 5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favourable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favourable terms aforesaid.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this rule, ‘week’ shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

- 8. Night shifts.- Where an employee in an employment works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then, -

- a) a rest day for the whole day for the purposes of rule 7 shall, in this case means a period of twenty- four consecutive hours beginning from the time when his shift ends; and
 - b) the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of twenty-four hours beginning from the time when such shift ends, and the hours after midnight during which such employee was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.
- 9. The extent and conditions of fixing house of work in relation to classes of employees mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 13 of the Code.- In case of employees-
The provisions of rules 6, 7 and 8 shall apply subject to the condition that –
- (i) the spread over of the hours of work of the employee shall not exceed sixteen hours in any day; and
 - (ii) the actual hours of work excluding the intervals of rest and the periods of inaction during which the employee may be on duty but is not called upon to display either physical activity or sustained attendance shall not exceed 9 hours in any day.
- 10. Longer wage period.- The longer wage period for the purposes of minimum rate of wages under section 14 of the Code shall be by the month.
- 11. Circumstances under clause (ii) of the proviso to section 10 of the Code.-
An employee shall not be entitled to receive wages for a full normal working day under section 10 of the Code, if he is not entitled to receive such wage under any other law for the time being in force.

CHAPTER III

PAYMENT OF WAGES

- 12. Manner of recovery of excess amount under sub-section (4) of section 18 of the Code.- Where the total deductions authorized under sub-section (2) of section 18 of the Code exceed fifty per cent. of the wages of an employee, the excess shall be carried forward and recovered from the wages of succeeding wage period or wage periods, as the case may be, in such instalments so that the recovery in any month shall not exceed fifty per cent of the wages of the employee in that month.
- 13. Authority to provide approval for imposition of fine.- The Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction over the place of work of the employee concerned shall be the authority for the purposes of sub-section (1) of section 19 of the Code.
- 14. Manner of exhibiting notice.- A notice referred to in sub-section (2) of section 19 of the Code shall be displayed at the conspicuous places in the premises of the work place in which the employment is carried on, so that every concerned employee would be able to read the contents of the notice easily and a copy of the notice shall be sent to the inspector-cum-facilitator having jurisdiction.

15. Procedure for imposition of fines.- The employer shall give an intimation in writing specifying therein the detailed particulars for obtaining the approval of the imposition of fine to the Labour Commissioner referred to in rule 13 who shall, before granting or refusing the approval, give opportunity of being heard to the employee and the employer concerned.

16. Intimation of deduction.-

(1) Where an employer makes any deduction in pursuance of the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 20 of the Code, he shall make intimation of such deduction to the Inspector-cum-Facilitator having jurisdiction within 10 days from the date of such deduction explaining therein the reason of such deduction.

(2) The Inspector-cum-Facilitator shall, after receiving intimation under sub-rule (1), examine such intimation and if he finds that the explanation given therein is in contravention of any provision of the Code or the rules made thereunder, he shall initiate appropriate action under the Code against the employer.

17. Procedure for deduction for damage or loss.- Any employer desiring to make deduction for damages or loss under sub-section (1) of section 21 of the Code from the wages of an employee shall,-

(i) Explain to the employee personally and also in writing the damage or loss of goods expressly entrusted to the employee for custody or for loss of money for which he is required to account and how such damages or loss is directly attributable to the neglect or default of the employee; and

(ii) Thereafter, give the employee an opportunity to offer any explanation and deduction for any damages or loss, if made, shall be intimated to the employee within fifteen days from the date of such deduction.

18. Conditions for recovery of advance of wages.- The recovery, as the case may be of,-

(i) advances of money given to an employee after the employment begins under clause (b) of section 23 of the Code; or

(ii) advances of wages to an employee not already earned under clause (c) of section 23 of the Code, shall be made by the employer from the wages of the concerned employee in instalments determined by the employer, so as any or all instalments in a wage period shall not exceed fifty percent of the wages of the employee in that wage period and the particulars of such recovery shall be recorded in the register maintained in Form-I.

19. Deduction for recovery of loans and the rate of interest.- Deductions for recovery of loans granted for house building or other purposes approved by the State Government, and the interest due in respect thereof shall be, subject to any direction made or circular issued by the State Government from time to time regulating the extent to which such loans may be granted and the rate of interest prescribed by the State Government shall be payable thereon.

CHAPTER IV

- (1) All fines and all realizations thereof referred to in sub-section (8) of section 19 of the Code shall be recorded in a register to be kept by the employer in Form – I appended to these rules, electronically or otherwise and the authority referred to in the said sub-section (8) shall be the Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction.

- (2) All deductions and all realizations referred to in sub-section (3) of section 21 of the Code shall be recorded in a register to be kept by the employer in Form-I appended to these rules, electronically or otherwise.
- (3) Every employer of an establishment to which the Code applies shall maintain registers under sub-section (1) of section 50 of the Code in Form-I and Form-IV, electronically or otherwise.

42. Wage slip.- Every employer shall issue wage slips, electronically or otherwise to the employees in Form-V under sub-section (3) of section 50 of the Code on or before payment of wages.

43. Manner of holding enquiry.-

- (1) When a complaint is filed before the officer appointed under sub-section (1) of section 53 of the Code (hereinafter in this rule referred to as the officer) in respect of the offences referred to in said sub-section either by an officer authorized for such purpose by the State Government or by an employee aggrieved or a registered trade union registered under the Trade Unions Act, 1926 or an Inspector-cum-Facilitator, the officer, after considering such evidences as produced before him by the complainant, is of the opinion that an offence has been committed, shall issue summons to the offender on the address specified in the complaint fixing a date for his appearance.
- (2) If the offender to whom the summons has been issued under sub rule (1) appears or is produced before the officer, he shall explain to the offender the offence complained against him and if the offender pleads guilty, the officer shall impose penalty on him in accordance with the provisions of the Code and when the offender does not plead guilty, the officer shall take evidence of the witnesses produced by the complainant on oath and provide opportunity of cross examination of the witnesses so produced. The officer shall record the statement of the witnesses on oath and in cross examination in writing and take the documentary evidence on record.
- (3) The officer shall, after the complainant's evidence is complete, provide opportunity of defence to the accused person and the witnesses produced by the accused shall be cross examined after their statements on oath by the complainant and documentary evidence in defence shall be taken on record by the officer.
- (4) The officer shall after hearing the parties and considering the evidences both oral and documentary decide the complaint in accordance with the provisions of the Code.

44. The manner of imposing fine.-

- (1) An accused person desirous of making composition of offence under sub-section (1) of section 56 of the Code may make an application in Form-VI to the Gazetted Officer notified under the said sub-section (1).
- (2) The Gazetted Officer referred to in sub-rule (1), shall, on receipt of such application, satisfy himself as to whether the offence is compoundable or not under the Code and if the offence is compoundable and the accused person agrees for the composition, compromise the offence for a sum of fifty per cent of the maximum fine provided for such offence under the Code, to be paid by the accused within the time specified in the order of composition issued by such officer.
- (3) Where the offence has been compromised under sub-rule (2) after the institution of the prosecution, then, the officer shall send a copy of such order made by him for intimation to the officer referred to in sub-section (1) of section 53 of the Code for needful action under sub-section (6) of section 56 of the Code.

CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS

45. Timely Payment of Wages.-Where the employees are employed in an establishment through contractor, then, it is the duty of the contractor to disburse the wages to his workers before the date of Payment of wages in accordance with the provisions of section 17 of the Code and also comply with the other provisions such as those pertaining to EPF, ESI, Labour Welfare Fund and there-after raises a bill, which shall be supported by proof of compliances under various labour legislations. After verification of the same, payment shall be released to the contractor by the Principal Employer.

Provided that, in case the contractor fails to make payment of wages within the prescribed period or makes short payment, then the principal employer shall be liable to make payment of wages in full as per the provision of section 55 of the Occupational Safety, Health And Working Conditions Code, 2020.

46. Responsibility for payment of minimum bonus.- Where in an establishment, the employees are employed through contractor and the contractor fails to pay minimum bonus to them under section 26 of the Code, then, the company or firm or association or other person as referred to in the proviso to section 43 of the Code shall, on the written information of such failure, given by the employees or any registered trade union or unions of which the employees are members and on confirming such failure, pay such minimum bonus to the employees.

Explanation - For the purpose of this rule, the expression “firm” shall have the meaning as assigned to it in the Indian Partnership Act, 1932 (9 of 1932).

- 47. Inspection procedure- For the purposes of the Code and these rules, there shall be formulated an inspection procedure by the Labour Commissioner with the approval of the State Government.
