No.MPCB/HSM-11/VOL-II/2023/2025-26/ 47

Dated: August, 2025.

PUBLIC NOTICE

ATTENTION: OCCUPIERS OF INDUSTRIES IN THE STATE OF MEGHALAYA.

The Environment Protection (End-of-Life Vehicles) Rules, 2025, notified under the Environment (Protection) Act, 1986, dated January 6, 2025, which introduce the Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) framework for End-of-Life Vehicles (ELVs) to regulate their management, recycling, and disposal in an environmentally sustainable manner. These rules have come into effect from April 1, 2025.

In accordance with the provisions of the said Rules, the Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB) is in the process of developing a centralized online EPR portal to facilitate the effective implementation of the ELV EPR framework. For the system to function effectively, it is essential that Registered Vehicle Scrapping Facilities (RVSFs) with adequate facilities are registered on the portal, enabling them to generate EPR certificates, which can be purchased by the registered automobile Producers to fulfil their EPR obligation.

Section 25 and 26 of the Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974, restricts the establishment of any industry and/or operation or process, or any treatment and disposal system whether new or existing which is likely to discharge sewage/trade effluent into a stream or well or sewer or on land without the prior Consent of the State Pollution Control Board.

Section 21 of the Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981, restricts the establishment of any industry and/or operation or process any industrial plant in an air pollution control area without the prior Consent of the State Pollution Control Board;

In view of the above, it is requested that those persons concerned/ occupiers who are operating or in the stage of establishment of the Registered Vehicle Scrapping Facilities (RVSFs) in Meghalaya without the Consent of the Meghalaya State Pollution Control Board to comply with the requirement of the above mentioned Acts forthwith.

Details for obtaining the Consent to Establish from of the Meghalaya State Pollution Control Board may be sought from the office of the Meghalaya State Pollution Control Board located at 'Arden' Lumpynggad, Shillong on any working day during office hours or the Board's website www.megspcb.gov.in. or through online portal consent management at megocmms.nic.in.
